Following are changes sent to us by Dan Murphy to the memo on Hanoi's Seven Points which we dexed to you earlier. We have transmitted the original and these changes to the plane for HAK.

Change sentence in middle of first paragraph to read as follows:

"I agree with the recent CIA analysis which asserts Hanoi's proposals are as tough as ever in their basic elements, but are meant to leave some room for negotiation."

In last sentence of first paragraph, change word "impatient" to read "implicit."
